Hi Jim. KeelyNet is a BBS in Texas dedicated to the ideas of John Keely and other, similar free-energy pioneers. Other BBSs of similar description are the Tesla BBS and the Cheyenne Mountain BBS. And my own humble Wrong Number BBS, 201-451-3063.

I have all the KeelyNet files here, feel free to download 'em or FREQ the files list.

Best,
  Clark

CONTINUUM is back!

ParaNet's newsletter of UFOlogy, online communications, paranormal studies and research is resuming publication.

An exciting forum for an array of interests -- and a handy resource for finding:

-- Current UFO events and symposia

-- Computer bulletin boards

-- Study groups

-- Contact groups

-- Researchers and research organizations

-- Writers and more.

Complimentary copies of CONTINUUM's premiere issue will be available to ParaNet participants and other interested parties for the price of postage.

Thereafter, CONTINUUM will be available by subscription only, mailed First Class within the U.S. Please inquire via NetMail for more information and subscription rates, including overseas rates.

CONTINUUM is back!

ParaNet's newsletter of UFOlogy, research, online communications, and paranormal studies is resuming publication -- and calling for submissions.

We are seeking articles of 500 to 3000 words for the premiere issue, which is scheduled for publication in July 1991.

Publication will be quarterly. Payment will be in copies.

SUBMIT ANYTHING!

We don't PROMISE to publish it, but if your topic interests you as a UFO buff, we think it's a safe bet that others in our "circle" will share your interest.

Science fiction. Science fact. UFO/paranormal history. Scaly-eyed skepticism. A book review. A television critique. An interview. The results of your last physics experiment. You name it: If it interests you, it will probably interest us and your compeers here. And it's welcome in CONTINUUM.

Registered copyrighted material will be protected but we do assume a grant of non-exclusive serial rights from you, the author, upon submission and before delivery of complimentary copies. You must inform us of other, pending rights sales upon submission.
Likewise, if you submit work-in-progress, your unpublished copyright will be respected but a grant of non-exclusive serial rights is expected in exchange for editorial and development work and before the delivery of complimentary copies. (Heck, we might even improve it!)

Planned articles in the coming issue include:

* The Fatima Enigma
* Online listening post -- best of the ParaNet echoes
* The Philadelphia Experiment: Build It in Your Basement?!
* ParaNet -- 5 years and counting...
* UFO History
* UFO current events
* Handy UFO classifieds
* And more...

 M A G A Z I N E   H I G H L I G H T S ***

* Free classified public notices of:

-- UFO events and symposia

-- Computer bulletin boards

-- Study groups

-- Contact groups

-- Researchers and research organizations

-- Writers and more.

Maximum ad length 40 words, including address and zip code. Dues-based membership organizations and sponsors of symposia may advertise, but free classified ads cannot offer anything for sale.

Space for free classifieds is limited, and the offer does not apply to display advertising. The management reserves the right not to publish ads.
It's definitely "un-commercial", but we're committed to keeping the the "bulletin board" concept alive in the UFOlogical community. So we want CONTINUUM to be a helpful resource for its readers -- just like ParaNet is for its users. What goes around, comes around, in other words.

Complimentary copies of CONTINUUM's premiere issue will be available to ParaNet participants and other interested parties for the price of postage.

Thereafter, CONTINUUM will be available by subscription only, mailed First Class within the U.S. Please inquire via NetMail for more information and subscription rates, including overseas rates.

A recent issue of the Australian and New Zealand Journal of Psychiatry, 1990; 24:561-565, carries a several page article by Terry Heins, Allison Gray and Maxine Tennant titled "Persisting hallucinations following childhood sexual abuse." Thery describe work by an American, Ellenson, who interviewed female incest survivors. "Careful mental state examinations found that all showed a post-incest syndrome involving specific disturbances in thought (certain types of nightmares, obsessions, dissociative experiences and phobias) and in perception (certain types of illusions and visual and auditory hallucinations)."..."Commonest were shadowy figures, movements in peripheral vision, intruder sounds...and inner helper voices..." I see some parallels with abductees here. As you may be aware Bob Bartholomew and I have drawn researchers attention to the possible link between fantasy-prone personality, abductees and childhood abuse. The line of thinking would go: could lifelong abductions actually be due to childhood (sexual) abuse (which we believe can trigger multiple personality disorders), causing a fantasy world creation which is then interpreted by UFO researchers as of alien abductions? We have challenged researchers to undertake detailed psychological testing of abductees to test if they are fantasy-prone, and also suggest the checking of their childhood for evidence of sexual abuse. I can supply some references for those interested in further reading on this topic. Comments would be welcome on this matter.

Subject: A peculiar dream
Date: 4 Apr 91 06:30:29 GMT

From: snelson@eniac.seas.upenn.edu (Steven Nelson)

When I was young, I'm not certain precisely when, I had a very peculiar recurring dream:

It was the fourth of July. We had set up fireworks in the backyard, and my father was holding some sort of barbacue. A number of obviously dream-like elements mark this as a dream. For example, a pig, which I had treated as a pet in the dream, was cooked, then came back to life.

I crawled to a neighbor's yard-- a huge, grassy field. I saw flashing lights coming from the area, which I interpreted as fireworks. As I emerged from the clearing, I could see that the lights came from a huge UFO, which hovered over the clearing at approximately treetop level. It was bright and multicolored. Next I was rising in a beam of light. At the end of the light, there was a face. After so many years, I can't tell you what the face looked like, except that the skin was pale, perhaps grey, and the mouth was a slit. When I saw the face, I would always feel intense terror and wake up.

The oddest part about this whole affair is that I'm CERTAIN that what I just described was a dream. None of the classic physical signs occurred: no disturbances in the grass, no peculiar wounds, no midnight nosebleeds, no notable periods of missing time. At the time, I was pretty sure that I had gotten it from watching 'Close Encounters' and seeing Star Trek.

Would anyone care to tell me anything about my dream? What is, in your opinion, the likelihood that visitors abducted me? Or was I just scared by the fireworks?

-Steve

Hello Clark! I'd bevery happy to receive THE CONTINUUM. My address:
1154 E. Palmcroft
Tempe, AZ 85252
Are you still planning to put up that file on Moon Oddities, or is it just that I haven't seen it yet?

The March MUFON UFO Journal (which just came 2 days ago) is excellent, BTW, if you happen to subscribe. Has an article that presents a new angle on some "crop circles" in Canada; and an article, quite lengthy, on an alleged witness to a saucer crash in New Mexico in 1947 - ties in with Roswell.

Don't let the snow get you down. We were at 91 degrees today!
Bye! Linda.
